

Airway:
Breathing?
Respirations:
Pain Score:

Military Field Medicine

Scenario Overview:

You have a fallen soldier with their left leg blown off. They are breathing and drifting in and out of consciousness.

Difficulty:

First Aider Difficult

How the scenario should progress:

The First Aider/Medic should approach the scene with caution to ensure that there is no active fire and that the casualty is able to be treated safely.

Actor Tips:

Patient 1:

Name: Thomas Thornton    Age: 28    Sex: Male

Medication:
None

Allergies:
Ibuprofen

Past medical/family/social history:
None

Findings on examination:
Left leg amputation below the knee. Breathing rates normal. Drifting in and out of consciousness

Possible treatment from first aiders:
Apply tourniquet, monitor vitals, ensure airways open

No Observations Given

